

Responding to Informal Quotes

An informal quote is a simple price quote – an electronic version of the phone quote. Vendors may respond by adding a price for the items listed, and beginning with version 11.25, can upload documents in support of their quote.

Accessing Informal Quote requests

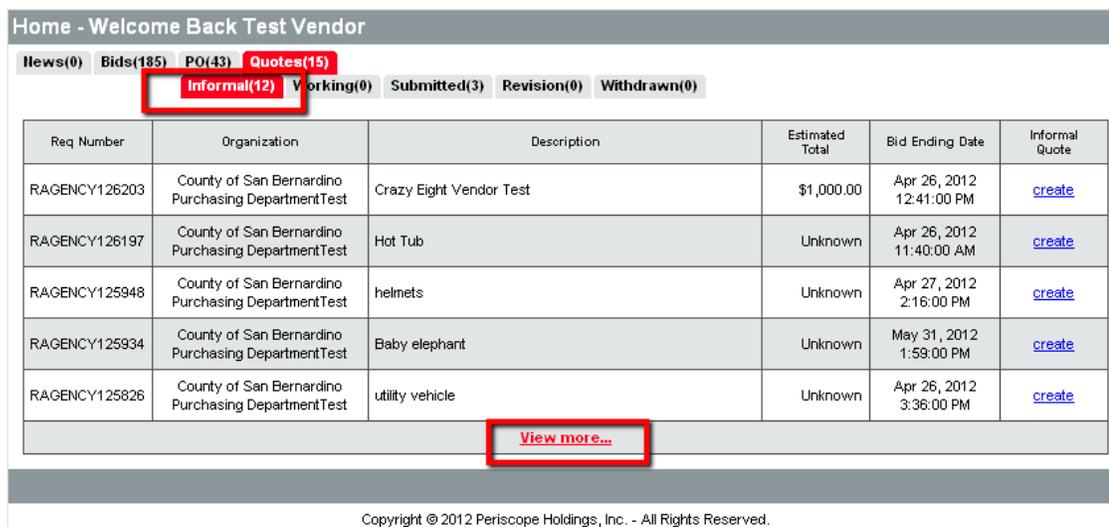

You may receive an email inviting you to provide an informal quote, or you may view the list of all available informal quote requests once you have logged into BuySpeed and clicked on your Seller role.

Click on the Quotes tab to access all the different sorts of quotes.

Under the Quotes tab, there are 5 sub-tabs. The left-most is the Informal tab. Next to it is a number in parentheses indicating how many informal quote requests are visible within that tab. The other tabs – Working, Submitted, Revision, and Withdrawn all refer to quotes in the formal solicitation process, and have no relation to informal quotes.

Choose the Informal quote tab, and a list of the most recent 5 available informal quotes will be displayed. If there are more than 5 available, then a link is provided to View More.

The Bid Ending Date shown is the deadline to submit an informal quote for a given requisition. After the Bid Ending Date and Time, the informal quote will no longer display and you will not be able to submit a quote. Time is the server time shown at the top of the screen just under the Seller and Seller Administrator tabs.

Once you click either Save and Continue or Save and Exit, your price quote will be communicated to the purchaser on the requisition and your Informal quote has been submitted.

At your home screen, the Informal Quote Request will change to say view/update to reflect that you have submitted a quote. This will continue to be available until the bid ending date has passed, or until the agency user has accepted your quote and submitted the requisition for approval, at which point you can no longer amend your quote.
