Re: UPDATED - Feedback on Proposed Rule Revisions

This SPO Alert has been updated. Updates were made to certain files to broaden the audience.

The Arizona Department of Administration's (ADOA) State Procurement Office (SPO) completed its Five-Year Rule Review of procurement laws. SPO is currently in the expedited rulemaking process and we're collecting input and feedback on the proposed rule changes. This is your opportunity to provide input and voice concerns regarding the procurement rules to be modified. Please refer to the following files for your review and feedback. Thank you in advance for participating.

File	Description
Rulemaking Focus Group Sign-up	Respond to the survey to sign up as a participant in the upcoming focus group.
Rule Revisions Feedback Form	Respond to the survey to provide your feedback on the proposed rule revisions.
List of Proposed Rule Revisions.pdf	An accompaniment to the survey "Rule Revisions Feedback Form" which lists and details the proposed rule revisions language.
CPO Forum 1.12.22_Rule Revisions.pdf	Presentation of the truncated proposed rule revisions during the Chief Procurement Officer (CPO) Forum meeting on 1/12/2022.

If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer.Calimag@azdoa.gov or Jessica.Klein@azdoa.gov.

Thank you,
