TITLE Information Technology Terms and Conditions Usage
REVISION Number 3
DATE February 2, 2015

III. Policy

- A. Purpose. The purpose of this policy is to ensure the proper utilization of authorized terms and conditions for the procurement of information technology goods and services.
- B. Authorized Use. State governmental units shall utilize State Procurement Office established information technology terms and conditions. The State governmental unit shall ensure that the subject terms and conditions are inserted within the solicitation or contract's special terms and conditions to ensure maximum protections as provided by the contract's order of precedence.
- C. Appropriate Situations for Use. Utilization and application of the information technology terms and conditions, shall be reserved for those procurements including, but not limited to the following:
1. Significant dollar investments, enterprise-wide deployments, or large-scale integration and implementation procurements that meet or exceed the threshold defined in A.R.S. §41-2535; or
  2. The complexity of the technical requirements, and potential impact of award on state government operations, is so great, that it is determined, without the flexibility afforded by using these terms and conditions, the State governmental unit may not possibly negotiate a favorable outcome;
  3. The need to ensure increased competition from multiple qualified vendors.

IV. Effective

This Technical Bulletin is hereby authorized and effective this 2nd day of February 2015, unless otherwise revised or repealed.

Barbara M. Corella, C.P.M., CPPB

State Procurement Administrator

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SPECIAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

[New Provision -May be used on case-by-case basis at State's discretion]

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

First Party Limitation of Liability

Contractor's liability for first party damages to the State arising from this Contract shall be limited to _____ time(s) the maximum-not-to-exceed amount of this Contract. The foregoing limitation of liability shall not apply to: (i) liability, including indemnification obligations, for third party claims, including but not limited to, infringement of third party intellectual property rights; (ii) claims covered by any specific provision of the Contract calling for liquidated damages or other amounts, including but not limited to, performance requirements; or (iii) costs or attorneys' fees that the State is entitled to recover as a prevailing party in any action.

[New Provision - Shall be used in all IT solicitations]

INDEMNIFICATION

Contractor shall indemnify, defend with counsel reasonably approved by the State, and hold harmless, the State, its departments, agencies, boards, commissions, universities, officers, agents and employees (collectively, the "Indemnitee") from and against any and all claims, actions, damages, costs (including attorneys' fees), and losses arising under this Contract, including, but not limited to, bodily injury or personal injury (including death) or loss or damage to tangible or intangible property, but excluding damages arising solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnitee. This indemnification obligation includes any claim or amount arising out of, or recovered under, the Workers' Compensation Law or arising out of the failure of Contractor to comply with any federal, state or local law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation or court decree. Contractor shall have control, subject to the reasonable approval of the State, of the defense of any action on such claim and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise, provided, however, that when substantial principles of government or public law are involved, or when involvement of the State is otherwise mandated by law, the State may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, to participate in such action at its own expense with respect to attorneys' fees and costs, but not liability, and the State shall have the right to approve or disapprove any settlement, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The State shall reasonably cooperate in its defense and any related settlement negotiations.

[New Provision -May be used on case-by-case basis at State's discretion]

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INDEMNIFICATION

With respect solely to Materials provided or proposed by Contractor or Contractor's agents, employees, or subcontractors (each a "Contractor Party") for performance of this Contract, Contractor shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the State, its departments, agencies, boards, commissions, universities, officers, agents and employees (collectively, the "Indemnitee"), against any third-party claims for liability, including, but not limited to, reasonable costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, for infringement or violation of any patent, trademark, copyright or trade secret, by such Materials or the State's use thereof.

In addition, with respect to claims arising from computer hardware or software manufactured or developed solely by a third party, Contractor shall pass through to the State such indemnity rights as it receives from such third party (the "Third Party Obligation") and will cooperate in enforcing them; provided, however, that (i) if the third party manufacturer fails to honor the Third Party Obligation, or (ii) the Third Party Obligation is insufficient to fully indemnify the State, Contractor shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the State against such claims in their entirety or for the balance of any liability not fully covered by the Third Party Obligation.

The State shall reasonably notify the Contractor of any claim for which Contractor may be liable under this section. If the Contractor is insured pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-621 and § 35-154, this section shall not apply. Contractor shall have control, subject to the reasonable approval of the State, of the defense of any action on such claim and all negotiations for its settlement or compromise, provided, however, that when substantial principles of government or public law are involved or when involvement of the State is otherwise mandated by law, the State may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, to participate in such action at its own expense with respect to attorneys' fees and costs, but not liability, and the State shall have the right to approve or disapprove any settlement, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The State shall reasonably cooperate in the defense and any related settlement negotiations.

If Contractor believes at any time that any Materials provided or in use pursuant to this Contract infringe a third party's intellectual property rights, Contractor shall, at Contractor's sole cost and expense, and upon receipt of the State's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, (i) replace an infringing Material with a non-infringing Material; (ii) obtain for the State the right to continue to use the infringing Material; or (iii) modify the infringing Material to be non-infringing, provided that following any replacement or modification made pursuant to the foregoing, the Material continues to function in accordance with the Contract. Contractor's failure or inability to accomplish any of the foregoing shall be deemed a material breach of this Contract.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Contractor shall not be liable for any claim for infringement based solely on any Indemnitee's:

- (i) modification of Materials provided by Contractor other than as contemplated by the Contract or the specifications of such Materials or as otherwise authorized or proposed in any way by Contractor or a Contractor Party;
- (ii) use of the Materials in a manner other than as contemplated by this Contract or the specifications of such Materials, or as otherwise authorized or proposed in any way by Contractor or a Contractor Party; or

(iii) use of the Materials in combination, operation, or use with other products in a manner not contemplated by the Contract, or, the specifications of such Materials, or as otherwise authorized or proposed in any way by Contractor or a Contractor Party.

Contractor certifies, represents and warrants to the State that it has appropriate systems and controls in place to ensure that State funds will not be used in the performance of the Contract for the acquisition, operation or maintenance of Materials in violation of intellectual property laws.

[New Provision - Shall be used in all IT solicitations]

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Ownership of Intellectual Property. Any and all intellectual property, including but not limited to copyright, invention, trademark, trade name, service mark, or trade secrets created or conceived solely pursuant to or as a result of this Contract and any related subcontract (collectively, the "Intellectual Property"), shall be work made for hire and the State shall be the owner of such Intellectual Property. The agency, department, division, board or commission of the State of Arizona requesting the issuance of this Contract shall own (for and on behalf of the State) the entire right, title and interest to the Intellectual Property throughout the world. Software and other Materials developed or otherwise obtained by or for Contractor or its affiliates independently of this Contract ("Independent Materials") do not constitute Intellectual Property. If Contractor creates derivative works of Independent Materials, then the elements of such derivative works created pursuant to this Contract shall constitute Intellectual Property owned by the State. Contractor shall notify the State, within thirty (30) days, of the creation of any Intellectual Property by it or its subcontractor(s). Contractor, on behalf of itself and any subcontractor(s), agrees to execute any and all document(s) necessary to assure ownership of the Intellectual Property vests in the State and shall take no affirmative actions that might have the effect of vesting all or part of the Intellectual Property in any entity other than the State. The Intellectual Property shall not be disclosed by Contractor or its subcontractor(s) to any entity not the State without the express written authorization of the agency, department, division, board or commission of the State of Arizona requesting the issuance of this Contract.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the State elects, in its sole and absolute discretion, to relinquish its ownership interest in any or all of the Intellectual Property, the State shall have the rights to use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, sublicense or disclose such Intellectual Property within State government and operations without restriction for any activity in which the State is a party (collectively, "Government Purpose Rights").

[New Provision - Shall be used in all IT solicitations]

WARRANTY

Unless otherwise modified elsewhere in the terms and conditions, the Contractor warrants that, for one year after acceptance by the State, the Materials shall be fully compatible with the State's computer hardware and software environment.

Contractor represents and warrants to the State that Contractor has the skill and knowledge possessed by members of its trade or profession and Contractor will apply that skill and knowledge with care and diligence so Contractor and Contractor's employees and any authorized subcontractors shall perform the Services described in this Contract in accordance with the Statement of Work.

Contractor represents and warrants that the Materials provided through this Contract and Statement of Work shall be free of viruses, backdoors, worms, spyware, malware and other malicious code that will hamper performance of the Materials, collect unlawful personally identifiable information on users or prevent the Materials from performing as required under the terms and conditions of this Contract.
