This is to advise you that contract AD050028 - Dell Marketing (formerly ASAP), Software Value Added Reseller, has been extended through July 31, 2010.

Separate statewide software contracts - AD040034 with Oracle and AD040025 with ESRI (Environmental Systems Research Institute) are expiring October 31, 2009. Because of the Software VAR contract in place, no new solicitations are planned for providers of these types of licenses.
